A GREAT PLACE TO DO NANOSCIENCE

Collage from a study on the spreading of respiratory droplets during singing. This study is one of many where NanoLund researchers contribute to the understanding and reduce of the spreading of Covid-19 By: Malin Alsved & Alexios Matamis; see also: Alsved, M., et al. Aerosol Sci Tech 54.11 (2020): 1245-1248.
