

Lund, September 13 2016

When to use the NanoLund affiliation

Many of us proudly use the NanoLund affiliation in all our articles and presentations. At a minimum, we expect from our members and affiliated members that you use it in articles and presentations that relate to those parts of your research or other activities that motivate your membership in NanoLund. This is extremely important both for general visibility and for reporting purposes, and thus for the future of NanoLund.

Examples for how to use the affiliation

Only one Lund University division is involved:

A. Svensson¹, Y. Cheng², and S. Miller²

¹ Physics Department, Chalmers University, Gothenburg, Sweden

² NanoLund and Chemical Physics, Lund University, Box 118, 22100 Lund, Sweden

Two or more Lund University divisions or external NanoLund affiliations are involved:

Y. Miller^{1,2}, J.A. Researcher^{1,3}, and A. Kalmarbo^{1,4}

¹ NanoLund, Lund University, Box 118, 22100 Lund, Sweden

² Mathematical Physics, Lund University, Box 118, 22100 Lund, Sweden

³ Biochemistry, Lund University, Box 118, 22100 Lund, Sweden

⁴ Department of Chemistry and
Biomedical Sciences, Linnaeus University, SE-39182 Kalmar, Sweden

Acknowledgement for NanoLund funding

You must acknowledge financial support from NanoLund and Myfab if the following applies:

- The work made use of Lund Nano Lab (note that all academic users of Lund Nano Lab are directly subsidized by NanoLund and Myfab)

You must acknowledge financial support from NanoLund if one of the following applies:

- The work received direct financial support from NanoLund.
- The work benefitted from a research visit, editorial help or other NanoLund-funded program.